The Constitution of India is the longest written constitution of any country. It is considered the supreme law of the nation, demarcating the structure, framework, powers, and duties of government institutions, and setting out fundamental rights, directive principles, and duties of citizens.

All citizens shall have the right

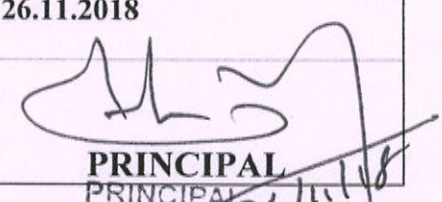

- to freedom of speech and expression;
- to assemble peaceably and without arms;
- to form associations or unions [or co-operative societies];
- to move freely throughout the territory of India;
- to reside and settle in any part of the territory of India; and
- to practice any profession, or to carry on any occupation, trade, or business.

Your Vote, Your Voice: Empowering Citizens on Voter's Day"

Organising Unit	Electoral Literacy Club
Academic Year	2018-2019	Venue	Auditorium
Date	25.01.2019

Outcome of the Event('National Voters Day' – Special Lecture)

- National Voter's Day is celebrated in India on 25th January every year to mark the Foundation Day of the Election Commission of India. As part of this occasion, on 25th Jan 2019, the Voter's Pledge was administered the students of SBECW.

On this Day Chief Guest Delivered the Following key notes.

- Every citizen's vote contributes to shaping the government and policies that affect their lives.
- Informed voting was emphasized as a way to counter misinformation and ensure that citizens make choices aligned with their values and the betterment of society.
- The role of young people in the democratic process was recognized as essential.

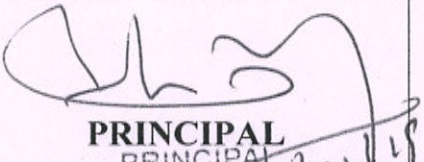

Attendees gained a deeper understanding of the electoral process, including voter registration procedures, the importance of maintaining accurate voter rolls, and the significance of ensuring the integrity of elections.
