Outcome of the Event (‘National Voter’s Day –Special Lecture’)

- The right to vote is fundamental to any democratic society, empowering citizens in shaping their nation's future. However, voter apathy and lack of awareness have been persistent challenges in many countries, hindering the full potential of democratic processes.
- This Lecture aims to shed light on the importance of voting awareness and engagement, exploring the root causes of low voter participation and proposing effective strategies to promote civic responsibility and active participation in the democratic process.
