'National Voters Day' - Debate

On

"Compulsory Voting: Should Voting be Mandatory in National Elections?"

Organising Unit	Electoral Literacy Club(ELC)
Academic Year	2021-2022	Venue	Seminar Hall
Date	25.01.2022

Outcome of the Event('National Voters Day' – Debate)

The Electoral Literacy Club conducted a debate competition on the theme 'Compulsory Voting: Should Voting be Mandatory in National Elections?' on January 25, 2022. Mr. Ramesh Raja, Assistant Professor in the Science & Humanities Department, acted as a judge.

- The aim of organizing debate competition was to hone the public speaking skills of the students. The session was the kaleidoscope of opinions, thoughts and perspective that enhanced the knowledge and understanding about the voting among students.
- The points presented were enthusiastically received by the spectators, who expressed their support with cheers and applause. There was a wealth of talent in the room as students made and defended their arguments.
- The competition was highly engaging due to the exchange of students' perspectives about compulsory voting, emphasizing the importance of civic duty and increased voter participation.
